"Labor is lawless by violence, cap-Ital by cunning." Thus Prof. George B Foster, of the University of Chicago, sums up the existing social situation in his article on the McNamara case. To mo the summing up is incomplete, since it omits the all-linportant fact that back of the capitalist's cunning, and rendering it effective, stands the organized violence of government It is to that we owe the hideous inequalities that keep us in perpetual civil war, inasmuch as but for the repressive force of government, the masses would not tolerate for twenty-four hours the absurd throne is not worth a moment's pur-Withdraw its governmentcreated privileges and millionairism stamp of a well-known Los Angeles
