

EDITORIAL NOTES

UNGRATEFUL GOVERNMENT

One of the most pathetic cases of hard luck—and one of the most instructive lessons—in recent days is the denial of citizenship to S. S. Saralief, editor of the Bulgarian S. L. P. paper, by the United States District Court of St. Louis, Saralief, true to the S. L. P. teaching, told the court that he was for the overthrow of capitalism by strictly legal and peaceful means.

lose by keeping the unity negotiations behind a veil of secrecy." Gitlow is right, even if the discovery is several months late and was made only after "the veil of secrecy" had already been torn aside.

For the Release of the Scottsboro Boys

It is now a little more than a year since the nine Scottsboro boys were tried on the fake charge of rape and sentenced to death by electrocution.

N. Y. Picnic

The New York members and sympathizers of the Left Opposition will greet the return of comrades Morgenstern and Goodman from prison at a picnic to be held Sunday, May 29th, at Tibbetts Brook Park, New York.

From Left Oppositionists in South America

(Continued from page 3) and had acquired some knowledge of the politics of class struggle, we continued our fight, educating ourselves and other workers who after that had come to our side.

Stalinist Zig-zags on the Question of the «United Front»

by LEON TROTSKY

On October 14, 1931, Remmele, one of the three official leaders of the Communist party, said in the Reichstag, "Herr Bruening has put it very plainly: once they (the Fascists) are in power, then the United Front of the proletariat will be established and it will make a clean sweep of everything."

it serves our purposes better to let them be the first to attack: that will solidify the entire working class around the Communists. . . In my opinion the Germans should be restrained and not encouraged."

in the latest issue of the Workers' Age, Gitlow announces the conversion of his group to the idea of letting the Party members, whose interests were being bargained over the conference table, have a little information about it.

Subscription rate: $2.00 per year; foreign $2.50. Five cents per copy. Bundle rates, 3 cents per copy.

With Communist greetings, PEDRO A. V.

* Bourgeois publishing houses in Germany.—Ed.