Capitalist Press Definitions

"Hoodlums"--Workers, who have the courage, in the battle against Pledge Fund was started with this starvation, to pit their bodies idea in mind. But the response against the armed thugs of the mills and the bayonets and machine guns and gas of the National Guard.

"Patriots"-Any and all strikebreakers.

"Sane Labor Leaders" - Any grafting labor skate who is ready price.

"Alien Communist Agitator" -Any worker who speaks for labor solidarity and practises what he preaches.

"Minute Men of '34" - Weasel brained morons or reactionary cockroach business men who can be bribed or scared into shooting or clubbing strikers when they know police and the National Guard.

Flying Squadrons

In courage, in readiness to battle against the powerfully armed forces of reaction, the Flying Squadrons of the mill workers are the ones who can be compared with the "Minute Men of '76".

General Hooie Johnson The windbag Johnson, like the steel industry has reached a new low. The picture of the Falstaff of the NRA weeping for the sufferings of Sloan would go well in a burlesque show.

Herbert Corwin was sentenced to ten years for attempted burglary. He served six years and was paroled. Last week, desperate and destitute, he appealed to the police to send him back to Sing Sing or he'd have to steal to live. Dr. Joseph Moore of the Parole Board said: "The fact that he might be about to commit a crime was sufficient ground to recommit him." . . . "Are you better off now than a year ago?" asks the President. "No," answers Corwin, "last year I was in Sing Sing." Possibly Moore's idea could be extended. Inasmuch as unemployment drives men to crime, it might be arranged to give a ticket to Sing Sing with each discharge slip. A very fitting addition to the New Deal or Epic

. . . "The Hatred of Communists"

Judging by the capitalist press one would think that the favorite sport of 99.9 percent of the population of California was hunting Communists and other radicals. That's how the press read during and since the general strike. Now, when they soberly weigh the chances of the leading red-balter, Governor Merriam, the situation looks a little different. Says the N. Y. Times-'There is evidence that the reaction is not against radicalism so much as against the Vigilantes." The "great public opinion which is inflamed against Communists" generally simmers down to big business, their paid press, and groups of drunken morons with American Legion badges and Matthew Woll.

Liberal "Spirit" Again Discussing the "boycott" of Germany in the Nation, Oswald Garrison Villard says--"Of course it would be a great deal better if the boycott could be restricted to the spiritual field." Reminds me of the Quaker bride who always waited till the spirit moved her. The answer of the impatient groom is also suitable for Oswald Garrison Villard.

> In June of this year there were 16 million persons on the relief rolls-13% of the entire population. Aside from individuals there were 3,830,000 families on relief in July and this number is steadily increasing so that it is estimated that the number will be 5 million in February, 1935. It is generally acknowledged that of the 37 million who work for wages and salaries, no less than 10 million are unemployed. In addition to this there are a large number of the 11 miltion who usually work for themselves, many of them farmers, who are also unable to support themselves. Thus Bohn states in the New York Post that there are 40,-000 families out of a total of 80,-000 on relief in the agricultural state of South Dakota. The youth from 16 to 25 who are neither at work nor at school, a good many of whom are not shown in any of the statistics, number some seven million. Small cause for wonder that the capitalists are alarmed at the thought that the vast reserve army of unemployed may establish their right to relief as a matter of course, as a part of the duty of the capitalist state, not a mere matter of charity.

The Constitution and the NRA

Constitution day has been made the occasion of a concerted attack tecting you. If only some of the by the outright capitalist reactionaries on the "liberal" Roosevelt and his NRA.

Bainbridge Colby, former Secrethe protector of property." Of course it is not Roosevelt, as Colby would have us believe, who thinks of the Constitution in such sacrilegious fashion. The NRA is designed to save the Constitution and the capitalist property system embodied in it, but by bringing the ancient document a bit up to date. Colby goes on, "Men high in the government speak of it as only a liberty to oppress or exploit and ask if there is not an overlooked liberty, the liberty to live and to work and to eat. This is a rather low type of political charlatanism. (Now, now, Bainbridge!)-The unemployed of the moment (after all five years is historically even less than a moment) and other victims of the depression are not victims of the Constitution."

Quite so, they are victims of the system of capitalism whose inception from the point of view of political state power can be traced back to the coup d'etat carried through by the wealthy mercantile forerunners of the capitalists, and

And it is perfectly in line with this "eternal" usage for Dr. Gerstenberg, former professor of fin-

Our rules will be entirely different from yours. Our Constitution will embody the rule of the working class, the Dictatorship of the Proletariat through Soviets, and not the Dictatorship of the Capitalists established by your Constitution.
