der barrels of the Polish Corridor, for which Germany is now renewing its claim, and of Memel, where the antagonism between Germany and Lithuania is only a superficial expression for a deeper rivalry...

slip back unless she reasserts herself and goes forward—that is, unless she is a victor in another war.

The same time the masses in other countries are reminded that it is but a question of time until there is too much capitalism, either in preparation for war or in the conduct of it, establishes an equally brutal and barbaric terrorism.

All of these war preparations of the imperialist powers are in reality directed also against the Soviet Union, though only some of them have this avowed aim...

Terrorism Grows

As capitalism everywhere in spite of its most frantic efforts, finds it more and more difficult to satisfy the most elementary needs of the masses, as it further depresses the standard of living even in relatively favored nations such as the U.S. and as the discontent of the masses seethes and boils over...

Move for Omaha General Strike In Support of Tram Workers

OMAHA, Nebr.—General strike sentiment in Omaha in support of the striking streetcar men has risen so strongly that the executive board of the Central Labor Union has agreed to place a general strike call before that body Aug. 2.

In support of the streetcar workers, the Omaha and Council Bluffs Central Labor Unions and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen have issued 70,000 circulars explaining the strike...

The leaflet emphasizes the fact that the streetcar strike is the same one which was called April 20, 1934, and has been repeatedly interrupted by conferences, only to have the company ignore all decisions of such conferences...

The local C.L.U. calls attention to its offer of "free-ride cars" identified by red and white stickers, a convenience developed by organized labor for the citizens to enable them to boycott the streetcars.
