Some 18,000 dressmakers of the I. L. G. W. U. demonstrated last Tuesday for one hour on Eighth Dress Trucking Association for refusing to sign a union contract. It was an impressive sight. It should bring results to the workers involved. Suppose a similar demonstration had been called by the officials of the I.L.G.W.U. one day sooner as a protest against the Nazi meethad participated in our fight against the fascists?

Another reversal of policy in the ight for adequate relief brings to light the complete and shameless role of Mr. Benjamin and Mr. Wiseman. This is the shifting of the responsibility for relief from the Federal Government. Now the plan is to make each State take over the administration of home relief and work relief, following closely Roosevelt's latest lead.

In order to insure in advance ample cannon-fodder for the generals, in order to insure in advance a large, cheap labor market for the Tom Girdlers and the Henry Fords, the Communist Party advocates open slavery and full submission to the program of reaction.

These union-wreckers will continue to wave the flag, to speak in the name of "democracy" and, when the war comes, play the role of spy in the ranks of labor unless the rank and file of the Alliance and of every trade union and workers organization take steps to drive out and smash this filthy G.P.U. and all its stooges.
