

A NECESSARY BOOK

SOCIALISM AND WAR

By LOUIS B. BOUDIN

A scholarly discussion of the causes of the Great War, and a splendid discussion of the economic basis of Imperialism.

It has everywhere been hailed as a fine contribution to Socialist thought, by such men as Eugene V. Debs, Austin Lewis and Joshua Wanhope.

$1.00 POSTPAID

SOCIALIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY

119 Lafayette St., New York

THE "SOCIALISM" OF NEW ZEALAND

By ROBERT H. HUTCHINSON

A survey of State Socialism "at work," and an interpretation of its basic class and economic origins. Includes a chapter on "The War and State Socialism."

In view of the onward sweep of State Socialism this book is equally indispensable to the thinker and the man of action.

$1.25, POSTPAID

SOCIALIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY

119 Lafayette St., New York