-- for instance, support on the part of the employed workers for the demands of the unemployed, joint picketing outside factories on strike so as not to admit strike-breakers etc.,

4. With regard to the agrarian demands, the slogan of the confiscation of the land of the big landowners should be supplemented thus: "and distribution of this land among the farm labourers and peasants". Placed before the demand of confiscation, the slogan, "The land to the peasants" is not concrete enough.

5. A great defect of the letter is its excessive generality and lack of concreteness for which the excessive haste of its composition is not a sufficient excuse. The Salvador situation evidently requires more careful study on your part.
