

Saenz<sup>1456</sup>, Juan Ramon Brea<sup>1457</sup> and Constantino Gonzalez<sup>1458</sup>, the latter Sandino's representative at the Frankfort Congress; and for the Army Defender of Nicaragua Sovereignty, Sandino himself and the members of his General Staff, Agustin F. Marti, Esteban Pavletich<sup>1459</sup> and Enrique Rivera Bertrand<sup>1460</sup>. The order of business of this meeting comprised two points:

1. The solution of "Mafuenic" in accordance with the agreement signed in Veracruz in June 1928 by Sandino and the representative of the Committee.

2. Discussion on the concept of the anti-imperialist struggle at the present period and particularly in relation to the Latin American governments.

The first point was finished, registering in the minutes "the Continental Committee of Ladla is entrusted with the task of studying the cash balances presented by the "Mafuenic" committee being responsible at the same time for its publication, withdrawing by this means all responsibility from Comrade Augusto C. Sandino and his army.

The minutes say further that "the representative of the "Mafuenic" committee handed at an opportune time the false receipts which for the amount of $1000 General Sandino signed to the mentioned Committee and which could not be made good, and finally the Continental Committee of Ladla was entrusted with the task of defining the motivations of Comrade Gustavo Machado, ex-representative in Mexico of Sandino's army over the considering any doubt as to Comrade Machado's sincerity out of the question in the fulfillment of the representation conferred".

In relation to the second point of the order of business the of the discussion was the retirement of Bach, Leon, Pedrueza and Saenz, completely unmasked as traitors of the Anti-Imperialist movement and, also the confirmation of the agreement between Sandino and ourselves. This agreement was summarized in the minutes by one of Sandino's secretaries textually as following: "being necessary the clarification the theoretical and practical contents of the anti-imperialist struggle in Latin-America, the comrades repre-

---

<sup>1456</sup> Vicente Saenz Rojas (1896–1963). Escritor costarricense. En los años 30 funda el Partido Socialista Costarricense (1935) del cual fue secretario general.

<sup>1457</sup> Juan Ramón Brea Landestoy (1905–1941), poeta cubano, militante del Ala Izquierda Estudiantil en Cuba. Fue expulsado del PCC de Cuba por «provocador», en 1932 participó en la fundación de la Oposición Comunista (trotskista).

<sup>1458</sup> José Constantino González (1884–1964). Nicaragüense, Secretario de la Liga Antimperialista de El Salvador (1926). Fue delegado de A. Sandino en el Congreso Antimperialista de Frankfurt (1929).

<sup>1459</sup> Esteban Pavletich Trujillo (1906-1981). Aprista peruano.

<sup>1460</sup> Enrique Rivera Bertrand. Miembro del Estado Mayor y coronel del EDSN.