

5. To strengthen and carry on activities in the Islands we should secure the aid of the British Party, the Comintern and the Profintern.

REMARKS: What is true of Jamaica, holds good for the larger islands of the West Indies. In Trinidad there is already a labor movement functioning and I'm informed they are affiliated with the British Labor Party.